Initiation into Kriya Yoga means to receive one's first experiences with the techniques involved from someone who has been authorized to pass them on and guide others in them. While no prior experience with yoga is required, your response to the following traditional questions is meant to represent your request and aspiration to receive Initiation into Babaji's Kriya Yoga and will facilitate your admission.

I received 1st / 2nd / 3rd initiation from Babaji's Kriya Yoga Order of Acharyas when, where:

I have been initiated into another Yoga lineage before, when, by:

WHY do I want to be initiated into the techniques of Babaji's Kriya Yoga?

What do I love most in this world?

Am I prepared to practice regularly and faithfully the techniques I receive in the initiation?

I take psychiatric medication or drugs: yes | not anymore | never

Please sign this form and also cooperate with our legal requirements. This allows us to make this workshop possible for you. We appreciate your co-operation, thank you!

I agree to take full responsibility for my own well-being and health, my experiences and interactions with others during and after this program, and in managing unpredictable circumstances, and therefore, to waive any claims of liability in regard to the organizer and its local representatives including the teachers, the venue, and the volunteers, and to confidentially disclose prior to the program any medical, psychiatric or energetic conditions, which could prevent or compromise me or other participants from participating in the full program. In acknowledgement of this ancient tradition, with promise to the lineage originator Kriya Babaji, I agree not to publish the content of this teaching and not to pass on the advanced practices of Kriya techniques to others, which are given to me specifically and only for my own personal use.
